WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Kentucky—Fair; continued cold northwest winds.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

The Democrats of Mason County are requested to assemble within their respective voting districts and at the places used as polls at the last November election, Saturday, March 25, 1893, at 2 o'clock p. m., and select a member of County Democratic Executive Committee, to serve two years or until their successors are chosen, by order of the State Central Committee.

The committees selected by said meetings will meet at court house, Maysville, Ky., Saturday, April 1, 1893, at 2 o'clock p. m., for purpose of selecting a Chairman and Secretary for said County Executive Committee.

The present committees will preside at the temporary organization of meetings held within voting districts in which they now reside; and in such districts as do not contain a member of present Executive Committee the assembled Democrats will select their own temporary Chairman.

Remember the importance and benefits of organization, and hold meetings in your respective voting districts without fail; and select the most active and effective Democrats only.

J. N. KEOHE, Chairman.

G. W. ROGERS, Secretary.

It is worthy of special mention that the condition of Uncle Sam's Treasury has been steadily improving ever since it was turned over to the Democrats.

The editors have not been barred from the Democratic feast, notwithstanding reports to the contrary. President Cleveland announces that they will stand just as good a chance as anyone else to secure some of the "pie."

CHARLES H. HUDSON burglarized a hardware store at Huntington March 3rd. On the 10th he was arrested and indicted, and the next day was given two years in the penitentiary for the job. Quick work, but that's the way to dispose of such fellows.

At the municipal election in Charleston, W. Va., this week, the Democrats elected all three of the councilmen and the City Treasurer. The Republicans elected the Mayor and Recorder. The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette's correspondent seems to regard the result as a Republican victory. Republicans are so unaccustomed to victory nowadays they hardly know when they have really won.

The New York World is engaged in the laudable effort of raising $20,000 to clear Dr. Talmage's Brooklyn Tabernacle of debt. Nearly $3,000 had been subscribed at last accounts. There's no such word as fail in the World's lexicon. A paper that raised $35,000 for the Democratic "campaign of education" last fall will not find much trouble in securing the $20,000 for Dr. Talmage.

The C. and O. passenger crews have had so much trouble of late with drunken toughs in Lewis County that they go prepared now for "war." If the thing keeps up much longer, "the State of Lewis" will be minus a few citizens. The two fellows who concluded to amuse themselves last Friday evening by shooting at the brakeman on the Huntington Accommodation while he was lighting the lamps, got the worst of it. They were given a sound drubbing and then kicked off the train. They ought to have been jailed at Vanceburg, and given a term at Frankfort.

DR. A. G. BROWNING is an applicant for the position of Fifth Auditor of the Treasury under Secretary Carlisle, but he has gone about the matter so quietly that the Associated Press dispatch yesterday was the first news his many friends in this city had of the fact. He is one of the few Democrats in the country who is thoroughly acquainted with the duties of the position. He was Chief Clerk in the office in 1858, having worked his way up from a minor position; at the commencement of Lincoln's administration he served for a time as acting Fifth Auditor. He was urged by Secretary Chase to continue in the position, but declined. The doctor is a Democrat of the strictest sort, thoroughly capable, of pleasing address, and his friends would be glad to see him honored with the office. The salary is $3,600 a year.

TAXING BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS.

The opinion of the Attorney General that the new Corporation law requires building associations to list their mortgages, notes, etc., for taxation is received with disfavor everywhere. Such taxation is simply double taxation, and should be abolished at once.

A man borrows $2,000 from a building association to erect a home for himself and little ones. He pays taxes on this property at its assessed value. But the new law steps in and says the building association must pay taxes on the $2,000 mortgage on the house. The stockholders of the association pay this tax, hence the man who builds the house pays the taxes on the house and in the end on the mortgage also. This is simply requiring a poor man to pay taxes on what he owns and also on what he owes—on his property and also on his debts.

There is no justice in such a law, and we believe the courts would declare it unconstitutional.

The Legislature should repeal the obnoxious clause in the law at once.

Kentucky's Live Stock Exhibit.

A meeting of prominent live stock men was held at Lexington Monday to arrange for Kentucky's exhibit at the World's Fair. Seven thousand five hundred dollars of the State appropriation has been set apart for that purpose. After much discussion and thorough deliberation the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, First, That the funds in the hands of the Kentucky Commissioners should be applied as premiums, and not to the payment of transportation of animals to and from the World's Fair. Such expenses should be borne by owners.

Second, That in making such application of funds the sums appropriated to any particular kind of live stock, should, as nearly as practicable, be in proportion to its relative importance as a Kentucky product.

Third, That this meeting recommend the use of the scale of points of the National Trotting Register Association in the judging of trotting horses, and that the distribution of premiums adopted by the World's Columbian Exposition be recommended for the distribution of such part of the Kentucky appropriation as is devoted to the payment of premiums on Kentucky stock.

"RIGHTEOUSNESS EXALTETH A NATION."

Editor Bulletin: To the religious world a most notable and interesting feature of the recent inauguration was a written and emphatic protest of our incoming President against opening the Pension Building for musical purposes on the Sabbath day. To his credit, he said, Secretary Noble of the Interior had previously issued orders against such a proceeding, but he was gratified to learn that the President-elect sanctioned his action. If "righteousness exalted a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people," does it not evince wisdom on the part of our rulers when they exercise authority "in the fear of the Lord?"

We believe the ex-President was sincere when he said to his friend, Dr. Krumler: "I am glad to leave magnificence behind me," for the closing months of his reign were freighted with sorrow, but his friends have the satisfaction of knowing that he has left also the impress of an earnest christian character. It would be well if church members would emulate his example as set forth in a final act. Instead of echoing the sentiments of Dr. Hamlin, who saw fit to denounce the General Assembly, Mr. Harrison simply vacated his pew and remarked to a friend: "I will not go to hear a preacher who will abuse the General Assembly."

While on the subject of Presidents we should like to inquire what has become of the numerous writers and admirers of the "lamented Lincoln," as we see it stated that a meeting was called to raise $50,000 to repair his grave and monument at Springfield, and there were only six citizens present, and the scheme will probably be dropped.

An Odd Kind of a Club.

The Locust Grove Swimmers had a dinner once a year, and each man, whether member or guest, was obliged to eat a whole duck and one complete lemon pie. He who cleaned his plates most effectually was presented with a piece of silver plate. Suspended over the dining table was a great wooden paddle, which was taken down when the toasting began. The significance of this article became apparent when a member, in responding to a toast, told a story which had been heard before. Another member whistled "Auld Lang Syne" and finished the story, thus proving that he had heard it before, and the paddle was put into vigorous use upon the offender.—New York Times.

Oddities About Men's Weight.

Professor Huxley declares that the proper weight of man is 154 pounds, made up as follows: Muscles and their appurtenances, 68 pounds; skeleton, 24 pounds; skin, 104 pounds; fat, 28 pounds; brain, 3 pounds; abdominal viscera, 11 pounds; blood (that which would drain from the body), 7 pounds. The heart of such a man should beat 75 times in a minute, and he should breathe 15 times during each minute. At that rate, in 24 hours he would vitiate 1,750 cubic feet of pure air to the extent of 1 per cent. In the same length of time he should throw off through the skin 18 ounces of water, 300 grains of solid matter and 400 grains of carbonic acid.—Philadelphia Press.

Effect of Sun and Moon on Steel.

A curious fact has recently been noted by the fine steel workers at Sheffield, England. It is this: Fine edged tools assume a blue color and lose all temper if exposed for any considerable length of time to the light of the sun either in summer or winter. A similar effect is exercised by moonlight, a large cross-cut saw with which the experimenters were working having been "put out of shape and its temper ruined by a single night's exposure to a first quarter moon."—St. Louis Republic.

Elsie's Occupation.

It was in the Sixth avenue elevated that one fond mother beamed upon an acquaintance and said:

"Yes, we are expecting Elsie home for the holidays. You know she's been in Boston persecuting the study of music all winter."

And the other woman never even dropped her eyelids as she answered:

"You must be so very proud of her. Not many girls of her age could accomplish so much."—New York World.
